

Montville Recreation Department's
Reading & Writing
"Word Attack"

WHO: Students in Grades 3-5

WHAT: During this accelerated program our certified teacher and reading specialist offers engaging activities to teach children to become strong independent readers and creative writers. Classes will be equally distributed between advancing reading and writing skills. During the writing portion students will learn how to create a story or essay in just 30 minutes! Students will be instructed on the use of several types of openings, lines of dialogue, figurative language, vivid verbs and strong adjectives. During the reading portion your child will gain the confidence and motivation necessary to tackle more challenging books, and by the end of the session, your child will:

- * Improve comprehension
- * Learn decoding skills for challenging words
- * Increase fluency and speed
- * Become an avid reader
- * Improve their ability to focus on understanding books
- * Identify main events, character development, setting and plot
- * Learn how to adjust reading speed depending on material
