

The Morris County Opiate Task Force, Morris County Prosecutor's Office, and Montville Health Department invite you to:

“The Opiate Epidemic – What Realtors Can Do”

Opiate addiction is on the rise, leading to an increased amount of overdoses and fatalities. During showings and open houses, unsecured medications can be a temptation to those who may then accidentally or intentionally misuse these substances. Please join us for this special presentation by Chief Assistant Prosecutor Brad Seabury of the Morris County Prosecutor's Office, who will discuss key factors of the opiate epidemic in Morris County, and how realtors can help by working with their clients to properly secure medications during home showings and open houses.
