

Pathways for Exceptional Children and
Montville Township Recreation
Learning about Archery
Fall 1 2019

WHO: Students ages 8 -13

WHAT: This program is for children of all abilities and is leveled according to each student's skills. The children will be introduced to the basic concepts of archery and will use bows and blunt arrows to practice shooting at targets. They will track their scores and try to improve with each class. Archery is a great sport that helps improve attention span and focus, eye hand coordination, patience, and upper body strength. The children will gain safety skills needed for use of the bow and arrow and work to improve social skills along the way as they work together as a team. The class is leveled according to each student's skills.
