PROPOSED AMENDMENT
HISTORIC SITES ELEMENT
MONTVILLE TOWNSHIP MASTER PLAN

This Historic Sites Element of the Montville Township Master Plan, adopted March 23, 1988, shall be amended by the addition thereto of three (3) landmark sites in the Morris Canal in Montville Local Historic District and thirteen (13) Individual Historic Landmark Sites, all as recommended by the Montville Township Historic Preservation Review Commission in a memorandum dated December 5, 1990, attached hereto.

Township of Montville

MEMORANDUM

TO: Township Committee/Clerk/Township Administrator
FROM: Linda M. White, Secretary Planning Board
DATE: February 19, 1991
SUBJECT: AMENDMENT TO HISTORIC SITES ELEMENT OF MASTER PLAN

At the Planning Board meeting of February 14, 1991, the Planning Board adopted an Amendment to the Historic Sites Element of the Master Plan. This change was made based on a memorandum received from the Montville Township Historic Preservation Review Commission dated December 5, 1990.

The Historic Element was amended by incorporating three (3) additional landmark sites in the Morris Canal in Montville Historic District and thirteen (13) additional individual landmark sites as shown on the attachment.

By copy of this letter, I am forwarding the attached amendment to the Morris County & Essex County Planning Boards. Should you need anything further, please feel free to contact this department.
